

Music to Empower, Nurture & Inspire

Diana "Leagh" Matthews

From Rebel to Redeemed

Sharing HIS Kind of Love

Through song, word and drama

Leagh is a musician, teacher and speaker with a heart for women. Leagh shares her own testimony, straightforwardly sharing her struggles and mistakes through word, song, visuals and drama.

She has been performing since childhood, often performing with her minister father until his death. She has a Bachelor's of Arts in Music. She has served local churches, taught in the schools, coached budding musicians and currently is a Certified Activities Director for a nursing home where she continues to use her music skills.

She also has a music ministry for local nursing homes.

Leagh has also written, directed and produced several musicals. She has a few songs in the works that she is currently writing.

Through her music, speaking and writing, Leagh brings inspiring stories of hope, redemption and overcoming through personal stories, scripture, and song.

She travels from South Carolina, where she divides her time between the Aiken-Augusta, Ga area and the Upstate.

To discover more of her journey and love of music and history join her at DianaLeaghMatthews.com and ALookThruTime.com.

Below is just a sampling of what Leagh offers. With over 100 soundtracks, the possibilities are endless. She will cater to your needs.

Leagh: In Concert

Leagh shares her testimony of adversity, spousal abuse, and rebellion through word and song. She loves to share how God redeemed her and changed her life.

Through the Fire

Leagh incorporates song to encourage and enlighten you through the fire to hope on the other side.

His Kind of Love

Leagh and her father compiled and performed this musical many years ago. Now she performs it to share God's love with others. This story of Christ journey to the cross and beyond incorporates communion and a slideshow.

The Joy of Christmas

Celebrate the joy of Christmas with Leagh through song.

Leagh is happy to tailor a musical program or music with a specific topic for workshop, service, revival, Senior Luncheon's, Women's Events, Conferences, Retreats, Teas, Nursing Facilities, Prisons, Weddings or Funerals

Leagh can open your program, enhance your event or perform in concert

Great for Workshops and Retreats

The Story behind our favorite hymns

Want to learn how some of your favorite songs came to be? Leigh will take you behind the scenes and into the lives of the lyricist and composers of some of your favorite hymns. Then sing along with her as she wraps each story up.

Stories of our Favorite Composers

Leigh shares the story of some of our favorites hymn composers and their journey through rebellion, loss and tragedy to finding Christ and bringing the gospel to life through song.

The Power of Music

We live in an ever changing world. With social networking, mass shooting and bullying in the formost of our mind there are many factors that complicate our already hectic lives. Leigh focuses on the benefits and healing power of music and the other arts to ward off the stressors that enter our day to day life.

Vocal Workshop

Leigh developed these techniques through her years of teaching. One of the biggest hits is learning to sing intervals. This is an 8 hour program, with an optional additional 3 hours of theory. Great for the church choir needing to enhance their skills or just wanting to learn more.
