

Diana Leigh Matthews

Seminar Topics

Proper Business Etiquette

Learn the proper business etiquette when you are on a business meeting, at a seminar, with business associates and in other professional situations.

Dealing with Different Personalities

We all have someone in our life that is difficult to get along with. We will probe into the four personality types to learn more about the personalities and their strengths or weaknesses. We will also discover our love languages. Sometimes all we need to know is the right way to approach someone.

Seeking Financial Wellness

Are your finances out of control? We will discuss the steps necessary to manage your finances and become debt free. Leigh will share her own struggles in this area and the lessons that she has learned along the way.

Explore Your Creative Side

Do you wish you were more creative? Do you want to delve deeper into your creative side? Leigh will give you tips and suggestions on how to dig deeper and become more creative.

The Effects of Domestic Violence

Domestic Violence affects not only the home life, but also the workplace and other aspects of our life. Leigh shares her personal experience with domestic violence, as well as the effects on the workplace, ways to be supportive and tips for leaving a domestic violent situation.

Schemers, Scammers, Bullies and Catfish

Everywhere we turn are people wanting to tear us down instead of building us up. Leigh will share signs to look for and ways to protect yourself.

Vocal Workshop

For Churches, Schools and Organizations

Leigh uses the techniques she developed from teaching to help your choir improve their skills, techniques and sound.

Workshops

Building Self Esteem, Gaining Self Confidence

Do you ever say, I can't do that? Well, you can! This interactive workshop will give you tips to build your self-esteem and help you to gain self-confidence.

Learning to Deal with Stress

We all have stress in our life! The problem is the way we deal with stress. Sometimes we allow stress to make us explode, while at other times we bury the stress. Neither approach is healthy! We will explore ways to deal with stress and exercises that will help us relax.

Dealing with Change

We all have change in our life, but how do we deal with it? Leigh will give you tips and suggestions on how to better deal with the changes that occur.

How Do I Help My Employees that Are Caregivers

In this presentation Leigh provides valuable tips and tools to help your employees who are actively caring for a loved one. She helps you to discover various plans to implement that are beneficial and workable for everyone involved.

We Have a Story to Tell

Behind each cover is a story to tell. As with a good book, each person also has their own story to tell. Discover how to share your story with others.

Reach for the Stars: Discovering God's Will for My Life

Your dreams are reachable, but to attain them you need a plan. Leigh wasted too much of her life going through life without a plan. She walks you through developing a plan and brainstorming ideas to overcome roadblocks along the way.

Workshops can be conducted on-site or off-site

All workshops can be tailored to meet your specific needs

Choose those sessions most applicable to your requirements and needs

Leigh is an experienced speaker. She has spoken for the SC Jaycees, Greenville Tech and Furman University. She is a 2011 graduate of Christian Communicators Conference. She is also a freelance writer and life coach.

Great for:

Corporate Businesses

Organizations

Churches

Schools

Hospitals

Libraries

Continuing Education Programs