

Music to Empower, Nurture & Inspire

Diana "Leagh" Matthews

From Rebel to Redeemed

Sharing HIS Kind of Love

Through song, word and drama

Leagh is a musician, teacher and speaker with a heart for women. Leagh shares her own testimony, straightforwardly sharing her struggles and mistakes through word, song, visuals and drama.

Her topics range from life experiences such as domestic violence, rebellion and depression to Bible lessons and truths. Leagh uses God's word as the basis for overcoming the roadblocks life throws in the way to find healing and spiritual truth. Her final message is the same: Jesus loves you and has a purpose for your life.

Her experiences as a preacher's daughter, sister, caregiver, survivor, Certified Activities Director, Christian Life Coach, women's ministry leader, Genealogist, musician, and writer provide a unique background to draw on her life's experiences. Her favorite title is Child of God.

Leagh is a novelist at heart and still walking the path to pursue her dream of publication. She has been published in numerous anthologies, won an award for her unpublished manuscript Carol of the Rooms and has e-books on Domestic Violence and Genealogy that will be published in Fall 2016.

She travels from South Carolina, where she divides her time between the Aiken-Augusta, Ga area and the Upstate.

To discover more of her journey and love of music and history join her at DianaLeaghMatthews.com and ALookThruTime.com.

Retreat Programs

Implementing the Fruits of the Spirit

It's so easy to live in the way of the world. Leagh takes life lessons to learn to live according to the fruits of the spirit.

{Can be used for one or multiple sessions}

The Women of Jesus' Family

Leagh shares the story of these remarkable women and how God can use even the least of us to accomplish his will.

{Can be used for one or multiple sessions}

When God Has a Different Plan

Leagh charted her course and set out to fulfill her dreams, but discovered that was not the plans God had for her. She had to choose whether to follow her will or God's will.

Walking in HIS Kind of Love

Discover what God says about love and how to love others the way he does, even when it hurts to love that person.

Leagh: In Concert

Leagh shares her testimony of domestic violence, rebellion and depression to finding salvation and forgiveness through song and word.

45-60 minute programs specially designed for your event. Other programs available upon request.

Leagh is happy to tailor a message for your women's retreat, conference, support group, banquet, tea, worship service or other event.

Life Application Sessions

Overcoming the Lies: You Are Loved

Leagh candidly discusses her abusive marriage, overcoming disappointment in circumstances to learning to receive the love she is worth and not settling for less.

The Prodigal Daughter: From Rebel to Redeemed

Leagh talks about her own years of rebellion before finally surrendering to God and how she had to be broken before being redeemed. She talks honestly about the decisions she's made in life and the consequences they've brought.

Finding Joy in a Sad World

Leagh talks about her unending journey with depression and loneliness. She shares how she has to daily make the choice to look at the positive and the techniques she's learned along the way.

Seeking Mr. Right, Finding Mr. Wrong

Leagh shares her own story of heartache and betrayal in her pursuit for love. She delves into lessons she's learned along the way and tells about the one who loves her most of all, her Savior.

Caring for the Caregiver

Leagh talks about her time as a caregiver to family members and in a paid manner. She shares ways caregivers can take care of themselves during this stressful time and shares tips to ease the burden of this journey.

The Perils of Online Dating: Beware of Catfish

Times have changed and we have to learn to change with them. Today we have to beware of predators not only on the street, but also online.

Letting Go, Moving On: The Art of Forgiveness

Leagh shares the damage Unforgiveness can cause and the healing forgiveness can bring.

The Healing Touch of Music

Music has the power to heal in a variety of ways. Leagh shares how music is the Universal language and has the power to heal.

Testimonials:

"Diana Leagh Matthews removes the mask and shares her story of hope and healing from her own deepest pain. With a heart for the hurting, she encourages women to forget the past and move into the future God has for them. " Vonda Skelton, Christian Communicators Co-Director; author of Seeing Through the Lies

"Leagh's warm personality and love for Jesus is evident to all who know her. She is a gifted vocalist, speaker, writer, and genealogist who loves to share her journey of overcoming adversity through word and song." Glenda Mills

"Leagh captured my heart with her music. Her voice is pure and trusting in the One who gives music to our souls. Listen and allow her to capture your heart." Marcia Gaddis

Leagh, has an amazing story to tell, a song to sing and a heart for her Beloved Savior. She touches her audiences with sincerity, a life filled with faith and encouragement to take the next step with Christ's side." Carolyn Knefely, co-director of Christian Communicators Conference and Go with Vision

Workshops/Seminars

The Essence of Me

Delve deep to discover who you are meant to be and God's will for your life through a variety of personality assessments and inventories.

Behind the Looking Glass

We often put on a happy face to the outside world, but who are we behind the mask. In this small group environment we remove the mask to reveal our inner hearts and struggles with other women.

We Have a Story to Tell

Behind each cover is a story to tell. As with a good book, each person also has their own story to tell. Discover how to share your story with others.

Creative Praying

Discover creative ways to spend time with the Father and to connect with your hidden talents and creative desires.

Diana Leagh Matthews Ministries

Call: 864-551-3509

Email: dianaleaghmatthews@gmail.com

Visit: www.dianaleaghmatthews.com

